GRAND.-Vaudeville, 2:15 and 8:15 p. m. PARK .- "Eight Bells," 2 and 8 p. m. EMPIRE.-Burlesque, 2 and 8 p. m.

Beginning with the matinee this afternoon, the four acrobatic Byrne brothers will hold the stage at the Park in "Eight Bells" for the remainder of the week. The play, which has often been seen here before, is a new version of a spectacular, pantomimic farce comedy, full of many mechanical effects that are very amusing. In the first act there is a schoolyard scene that is said to be the funniest thing presented by the acrobatic brothers for some time, as it is a series of ludicrous situations of the most surprising kind. The boat scene still caps the climax of the play, as of old, and the final collapse of the ship is an effect that always brings forth roars of laughter. The Byrnes are Englishmen, and as they received all of their early training in London pantomimes they understand how to stage a production of this class so as to get all of the fun possible out of it. They have a big company with them this season, and it is claimed that they are giving the best show that they have ever had Augustus McCune, of the Wagenhals & of-town guests was Miss Sloss, of Cleve-Kemper forces, who is now in Indianapolis preparing for the appearance at English's next Wednesday night of Louis James and Frederick Warde in a grand revival of Pittsburg before returning home. "From every standpoint our producwould stand out in bold prominence and the artistic effect would surpass Mr. Mansfield's effort," declared Mr. McCune yesterday. "By nature and training Louis James and Frederick Warde are the ideal Brutus and Marc Antony. James looks every inch the noble Roman, while Warde's excellent elocution makes his Antony an ideal creation. Wagenhals & Kemper have always been noted for the extravagance of pictorial detail, and a rival production to that of Mansfield would be interesting for the sake of comparison, and would lead to will be made, as I believe it would prove every bit as successful as the present great production of 'The Tempest.

Clark Brown, representing the Carl Hagenbeck trained-animal show, which comes to the Park next Monday for a week's engagement, arrived in the city yesterday and immediately began contracting with various butchers, fish dealers and grain men to supply the wild-animal actors with food during their stay in Indianapolis. One ton of meat is required by the Hagenbeck company every day, while 100 pounds of fish and one ton of hay must be secured for the animals. The "members" of the company are an elephant, a liontiger hybrid such as has never been seen in this country before, three lions, five tigers, nine Polar bears, two leopards, two | Merritt, who was with them in the West, jaguars, eleven seals and sea lions, sixteen goats, fourteen pigs and twenty birds, principally macaws and cockatoos. The show will come directly to this city from Chicago. It will be a great attraction for esting exhibitions for adults ever given in The seats for the engagement of Andrew Mack at English's next Monday and Tuesday nights in "Arrah-na-Pogue" will be placed on sale this morning. "Arrah-na-Pogue" is one of the most famous of all the old plays of Dion Boucicault, who also wrote the idyllic Irish dramas, "The Colleen Bawn" and "The Shagraun." It has been many years since one of these beautiful stage stories of the Emerald isle has been seen in this city in the hands of a good comedian and a fine company. Mr. Mack, who is considered one of the sweetest singers on the American stage, will introduce in the play four original songs, entitled "You Are My Star," "Irishman's Lilt," "We'll Hurry to the Church and Be Married" and "For Home and Ireland," and will also sing the famous song, "The Wearing of the Green," waich was not allowed to be sung in the "ould country" when the play was first presented there a half century ago, those heard singing it being punished by the high-handed English law.

"King Dodo" will not be seen in Indianapolis this season, as word has just been received here from Barney Reilly, the press representative of that attraction, that the company is to go into Chicago for a long run, after three weeks more of brief engagements in the East. Henry W. Savage, the manager of "King Dodo," as well as of many other of the season's greatest musical successes, has sailed for Europe for the express purpose of hearing a new opera sung, so as to make sure whether he cares to produce it in America, he having already secured the American rights. The trip is to be a flying one for Colonel Savage, as he expects to be back in New York about the middle of May. Mr. Reilly, who has done some excellent press work for "King Dodo" company this season, will have his first chance in a long time to take things easy during the Chicago run, as the opera is such a great favorite in the Windy City that but little advertising will be required there.

> Many traveling companies in this section of the country are beginning to get their notices of an approaching close of the season. The unusually early spring is the general reason given by the managers, who fear to lose in a few hot weeks what they have toiled so hard to gain all winter.

DEPARTMENT'S BUSY DAY.

There Were Several Fire Alarms, but the Losses Were Small.

There were a number of fire alarms yesterday, but none of them called the apparatus on a useless errand, although it was All Fools' day. Early in the morning the work of the fire horses and men began with a call to Box 91, where a two-story brick building, occupied by the Indianapolis

Specialty Shoe Company, at 21 West Maryland street, was endangered by a small fire in a heap of rubbish. Half an hour later a call from Box 896 took the fire department to 323 Massachusetts avenue, to extinguish a fire in the Hoosier laundry.

The building is a frame structure and the loss on it and the machinery from the blaze, caused by a defective flue, amounted to $100. This fire caused a scare and the excitement of the girls working in the laundry was shown in the varied costumes in which they emerged from the burning building. Another incident of the alarm was the accident to chemical truck No. 2.

The wagon was overturned at New Jersey and Washington streets by the breaking without injury, and the loss to the truck was confined to the broken axle.

During the afternoon the department was called to 1620 Southeastern avenue to extinguish a small blaze in a frame dwelling ed to $25. A small fire at 119 East Seventeenth street brought a loss of only $2,

The Board of Public Safety yesterday agreed to detail a patrolman for duty in the juvenile court. Judge Stubbs visited the board and suggested this plan. You may spend $3.00 at one store, $10.00 at another, $8.00 at an another and $4.00 in miscerlaneous purchases-there are $25.00 expended, for which your round-trip fare will be refunded.

PERSONS LIVING AT A GREATER DISTAN E THAN FORTY MILES may have their fare rebated. To illustrate: If you live 60 miles away the Association refunds 40 mil s of it both ways, leaving the cost of only 20 miles to you. INTERURBAN PASSENGERS ARE GIVEN EN-TIRE FARE, FOR ENTIRE DISTANCE, but should ask conductors for cash receipts and the receipt must
